2. General Instructions Regarding the Examination

(1) This examination will be conducted according to the online based system. The detailed procedure of the examination will be determined by the Service Board and will be displayed on the website of the Service Board in due course.

(2) On the basis of the preliminary examination, a maximum of 15 times the number of vacancies for admission to the Main examination will be declared successful and on the basis of the result of the Main examination, a maximum of 3 times the number of candidates will be called for the interview (where required) and a maximum of 5 times the number of candidates for the proficiency test (where required).

(3) The Service Board shall conduct the written examination on the same date in different shifts with different question papers in one shift or more than one shift or more than one date.

(4) The level of the question paper shall be commensurate with the minimum educational qualification required for the post. The syllabus of the examination is enclosed in Appendix-2.

(5) The determination of the number of questions, total marks and time duration for the Preliminary/Main Examination is as follows:

S.N.	Examination	Number of Questions	Total marks	Scheduled Time
1	Preliminary examination (if required)	100	100	01:30 Hours (90 minutes)
2	Main Examination	120	200	02 hours (120 minutes)

(6) The Preliminary/Main examination will be conducted online in objective mode. It will be on a multiple-choice basis. There will be four options for the answer to each question, the candidate has to choose one of them correctly.

(7) The system of minus marking on the wrong answers given by the candidate in the objective type of question papers of the Preliminary/Main Examination shall apply as follows:-

1. There will be four alternative answers for each question. For one wrong answer given by the candidate for each question, 1/4 (25 %) of the marks allotted for the question will be deducted as a minus marking (minus marking).
2. If a candidate gives more than one answer, it will be considered as a wrong answer. Even if one of the given answers is correct, the same minus marking will be given for this question as above .
3. If no question is solved by the candidate i.e, not answered by the candidate, then no minus marking will be given for that question .

(8) The Minimum Efficiency Standard for SC/ST candidates is set at 35%. That is, if the candidates of these categories score less than 35% marks in the Main examination, they will not be included in the merit/selection list. Similarly, the minimum efficiency standard for candidates of other categories is set at 40%. That is, if such candidates score less than 40% marks in the Main examination, they will not be included in the merit/selection list. All such candidates will be considered ineligible if they do not get the minimum efficiency standard marks set by the Service Board.

(9) The date and time of the examination will be displayed on the website of the Service Board from time to time .

(10) If a candidate faces any difficulty in the online application, he/she may obtain a solution to his/her difficulty/problem by contacting the Service Board's "Help Desk" at the number 0522-7118317 (on any working day from 9:30 AM to 6:00 PM) or through the Service Board's email ID- helpdesk@upcisb.org

(v) The candidate shall be present at the examination centre at his/her own risk and expenditure in the examination. The Service board will not be liable for any injury or loss etc.

(vi) The selection of the centre once done by the candidate will be final.

If an adequate number of candidates do not choose a particular centre for the 'online' examination, the Service Board reserves the right to allot those candidates to some other nearby centre; or if the number of candidates at any centre exceeds the available capacity for the online examination, the Service Board reserves the right to allot the candidate to another centre.

(16) Guidelines for persons with disabilities using scribe for writing-:

(i) Visually impaired candidates and candidates whose writing speed is permanently adversely affected for any reason, subject to the limitations specified in (ii) and (iii) below, You can keep your scribe at your own expense during the online exam. In all cases where scribes are used, the following rules will apply:

- The candidate will have to arrange his / her scribe at his own expense.
- The scribe arranged by the candidate should not be a candidate of the same examination. If violation of the above is found at any stage of the process, the candidature of both the candidate and the scribe will be cancelled. Candidates who want to use the services of Scribe must mention it carefully in the online application form. Any subsequent request cannot be accepted.
- A person acting as a scribe for one candidate cannot become a scribe for another candidate.
- Scribe can be from any academic stream. However, the scribe for the posts of Specialist Officer should be of a different stream than the academic stream prescribed for that post.
- Both the candidate and the scribe will have to furnish a suitable declaration confirming that the scribe fulfills all the eligibility criteria mentioned above. If later it is found that he/she did not meet any of the prescribed eligibility criteria or concealed important facts, the candidate's candidature will be cancelled at any stage irrespective of the outcome of the online examination.
- Candidates who will use the scribe will be provided with a compensatory time of 20 minutes for each hour of the examination or otherwise, as otherwise directed.
- The scribe will not answer on its own. If any such behaviour is found, the candidature will be cancelled.
- Only those candidates who have registered for compensatory time will be given such concessions. Since the compensatory time will be system based, it will not be possible to provide such time by the agency conducting the examination if the candidate has not registered for the same. Candidates who have not registered for compensatory time will not be granted such concessions.

- At any stage during the examination, if it is found that the scribe is answering the questions independently, the examination session will be terminated and the candidate's candidature will be cancelled. If after the examination it is reported by the examination admin personnel that the scribe independently answered the questions, the candidature of such candidates who had used the services of scribe will also be cancelled.

(ii) Guidelines for candidates with mobility disability and cerebral palsy

Candidates whose major (writing) limb ability is affected to such an extent that the pace of performance has slowed down (minimum 40% disability) will be provided with compensatory time of twenty minutes per hour or otherwise, as otherwise directed.

(iii) Guidelines for visually impaired candidates

- Visually impaired candidates (who have at least 40% disability) may choose to view the content of the examination in larger font and all such candidates will be eligible for compensatory time of 20 minutes for each hour of the examination or as otherwise directed.
- Visually impaired candidates will be provided the facility to view the examination material in large font.

These guidelines may be issued by the Government of India (GOI) from time to time. Government of India Office Memo No. 16-110/16 issued by the Government of Uttar Pradesh. 2003 – III, dated 26.02.2013 in order of Government of Uttar Pradesh Government No. 7/2013 2019 / 3 / 4 / 86 – K – 2 / 2019 is subject to change as per the guidelines/clarifications dated 04.12.2019 (as amended).

(17) Other provisions :—

- (i) The possibility of any problem in the conduct of the examination cannot be completely ruled out, which may affect the conduct of the examination and/or the preparation of the result. In such a situation, every effort will be made to resolve the problem, which may include transfer of candidates, delay in examination, etc. The conduct of the re-examination will be subject to the absolute discretion of the institution conducting the examination. Candidates will not have the right to make any claim for the re-examination. Candidates who are not ready to be transferred or are not willing to participate in the delayed process of conducting the examination will be immediately dismissed from the process.
- (ii) The decision of the Service Board in all matters related to recruitment will be final and binding on the candidate. No correspondence or personal enquiry will be accepted by the Service Board in this regard.

- (iii) If the exam is conducted in more than one session, the marks of different sessions will be equated to accommodate the slight difference in the difficulty level of the different question paper series used in different sessions. More than one session is required when the capacity of the nodes is low or there is a technical disruption occurs at a centre or for a candidate.
- (iv) The Service Board will analyse the answers of individual candidates along with the answers of other candidates to find out the pattern of similarity between correct and incorrect answers. If the analytical process adopted by the Service Board in this regard finds that the answers have been shared and the marks obtained are not genuine/valid, the Service Board reserves the right to cancel the candidature of the concerned candidates and the result of such candidates (disqualified) will be withheld.
- (v) If any candidate is found to be furnishing wrong information and/or violating the procedure at any stage of the selection process, he/she will be disqualified from the selection process and will not be allowed to participate in the recruitment process of any Service Board in future. If such cases are not detected during the current selection process but are detected later, such disqualification shall apply retrospectively.

(vi) Procedure for Determination of Marks:—

The marks of the online exam are obtained by following the following procedure:

- (a) In each objective test, the number of questions answered correctly by the candidate is considered to get a corrected score after applying penalty on wrong answers.
- (b) The revised marks so obtained are equated to adjust for the slightest difference, if any, in the difficulty level of each objective test conducted in different sessions.
- * The marks obtained by the candidates in any examination are equated with the base form taking into account the distribution of marks of all the question papers.
- (c) The marks and total marks of each examination are displayed with decimal points up to two decimal points.

Note: The cut-off is implemented in two stages:-

- i. On the scores of each individual test
- ii. On Total Marks

(vii) As per policy, the examination/question papers are made available to the candidates only during the examination. Even after the examination, the question papers are not shared with anyone.

Please note that a candidate is allowed to appear only once in the online examination for a post. If you appear in the online examination more than once, the candidature will be canceled. In case more than one Admit Card has been issued, candidates are advised to appear in the examination only once and for one post on the date and time mentioned in the respective Admit Card.

(18) Separate applications will be accepted for the advertised post/group.

(19) Every application shall compulsorily fill up the post/institution based order of preference which cannot be changed under any circumstances.
